

DREISSIGACKER

EXPERTISE

2015 Kirchspiel Riesling

|                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Origin         | Rheinhessen                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Grape variety  | Riesling                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Vinification   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Mash stand time up to 18 hrs.</li><li>- Spontaneous fermentation</li><li>- 50 % stainless steel, 50 % wooden barrel</li><li>- long yeast storage</li><li>- organic wine DE-Öko-022</li></ul> |
| Tasting notes  | "A racy Riesling full of character. Tamarillo, apricot and star fruit. Great pressure and minerality."André Grunert, head sommelier, Mook Group in Frankfurt                                                                     |
| Analysis       | 14.0 % vol. alcohol6.5 g/l residual sugar8.6 g/l acidity                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Serve at       | 10 – 12° C                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Bottle content | 750 ml                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Item number    | 18                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |